

Tricia Reichert – Beginning Student Materials Supply List

WATERCOLOR CLASSES

Please buy Artist grade colors if you can, not student grade – (Not Winsor Newton Cotman colors or Grumbacher Academy) – you will easily be able to tell the difference by the price.

Paints – 8 tubes

Cadmium Red (Winsor Newton)

Permanent Rose (Winsor Newton)

Prussian Blue (or Thalo blue) (Winsor Newton)

French Ultramarine Blue (buy Winsor Newton brand)

*Hansa Yellow Light (Daniel Smith)

Cadmium Yellow (Winsor Newton)

Burnt Sienna - (buy Winsor Newton brand)

Raw Sienna - (buy Winsor Newton brand)

Titanium White Gouache (Graham brand)

*(I usually buy Winsor Newton paints except for the Hansa Yellow- that comes from Da Vinci or Sennelier (called Lemon Yellow) or Daniel Smith – (Hansa yellow light).

Brushes

Kingart Original Gold Round brushes sizes 4, 6, 8 and 10 and ½” flat - (these brushes are available from cheapjoes and amazon)

1/4” flat brush with angled handle end ( for applying latex resist)

OR Winsor Newton or Princeton brushes

Paper

Fabriano Artistic Watercolor Paper, 140lb Cold Press, OR Arches 140lb Cold Press Watercolor Paper - either pads, blocks or sheets, approx. 9”X12”. (You can buy 1 sheet, 22”x30” and cut or tear it into 8 pieces if you wish. Be sure to mark the front with an x in the corner of each piece – the front is the side where the watermark can be read correctly)

Sundries

2b pencil (2) and sharpener and a soft white erase (Moo or Vanish) OR mechanical pencil (Pentel Twist-Erase (.05 Lead size)

White covered palette for holding and mixing colors, (e.g. Mijello, John Pike, Zoltan Szabo, Cloverleaf, Shy)

Deep Water container - (clear plastic container works well for this)

Violet color Masking tape for delicate surfaces (from the hardware store)

Small cellulose sponge (Kitchen sponge -Trader Joe’s pop up sponges work really well)

Pebeo Masking Fluid and a small synthetic brush to apply e.g (# 4 ‘Snap’ synthetic brush, OR 1/4” flat brush with an angled handle end)

Old credit card with corners cut off at different angles.

Sea sponge (optional)
